

In re Budget Divorce,
BUPL No. UPL 92-3 (1993)

Following investigation and report with recommendations by the Office of Disciplinary Counsel, and consideration by the Board, it was held that a non-Delaware corporation which had inadvertently advertised in Delaware as to the availability of legal forms which in fact it did not distribute, nor give legal advice in any event, did not engage in the unauthorized practice of law.